

WELCOME TO DESERT RIDGE MARKETPLACE

Code of Conduct

Desert Ridge Marketplace, and its parking lots, is private property and please keep all firearms locked within your vehicle. The shopping center is currently recording activity by closed circuit television and audio equipment, which may also be carried and used by Shopping Center Security Officers. The following Code of Conduct is set forth for the purpose of protecting the shopping center's legitimate business interests and any violation of the code interferes with the commercial nature and function of the shopping center. Many of the issues covered within the Code of Conduct are also issues covered in the Arizona Criminal Code and may be enforced as such. If you fail or refuse to follow this Code of Conduct you will be asked to leave the property. If you fail or refuse to leave property you will be arrested and prosecuted for criminal trespassing per ARS 13-1502. As a visitor on this property, you are prohibited from engaging in any of the following activities while on this property:

1. Using physical force, obscene language, obscene gestures, or racial, religious or ethnic slurs, which are likely to create a disturbance or impinge on the hearing or peace of other patrons of the shopping center or other disorderly conduct, loitering or disturbing the peace.
2. Physically or verbally threatening any persons, fighting, annoying others through noisy or boisterous activities or by unnecessary staring. Also by following another person through the shopping center or by using sexually explicit or conduct in any other way creating a disturbance which interferes or is disruptive or dangerous to the shopping center patrons or its commercial function.
3. Running, skating, rollerblading, skateboarding, bicycling, obstruction or interfering with the free flow of pedestrian traffic or with patrons view of windows and other tenants displays, or assembling for the purpose of disturbing the public peace or committing any unlawful act. Groups of 5 or more will be asked to separate into smaller groups.
4. Creating litter, or throwing, discarding or depositing any paper, glass, or other matter of any kind in the shopping center, except in designated trash receptacles, or rummaging through or removing items from the trash receptacles or ashtrays.
5. Defacing, damaging, or destroying any real or personal property constituting part of, or located in or on the shopping center and belonging to the shopping center, its patrons or its tenants, including writing, spraying, scratching, etching or otherwise affixing graffiti on such property.
6. Engaging in non-commercial expressive activity without prior written permission from shopping center management and in accordance with the shopping center's rules for such activity.
7. The outdoor common areas of Desert Ridge Marketplace are considered dog-friendly environments. However, all owners will need to abide by the Dog

- Code of Conduct policy. The comfort and convenience of our human visitors is our first priority, and we welcome customers accompanied by well-behaved dogs on leashes. Non-dog animals, living or dead, are prohibited in "The District", with the exception of animals in the company of and trained to assist physically challenged patrons.
8. Yelling, screaming, singing, playing musical instruments, radios, tape or compact disc players, or otherwise communicating in a manner which creates noise of sufficient volume to impinge on the hearing or peace of the general public.
  9. Soliciting money or other contributions or donations or distributing commercial advertising or promotional material of any kind, or offering samples or items which are sold, available for sale or available in exchange for donation or contribution, except with the prior written agreement of the management of the shopping center.
  10. Failure to be fully clothed or wearing apparel, which may be construed as a weapon, (such as chains spiked and studded items) or may be recognized as promoting or recruiting for a lifestyle of criminal activity, (including color, wording, symbols). Also gesturing in a manner which is likely to provoke a disturbance or embroil other groups or the general public in open conflict.
  11. Sitting on floors, planters, handrails, stairs, escalators, trash receptacles, and other areas not specifically designed for seating. As well as loitering, delaying, lingering, or remaining idle about the property without any useful business for being present.
  12. Being publicly intoxicated and/or possessing any open can, bottle, or other receptacle containing any alcoholic beverage, except in the areas specifically designated for the consumption of alcohol. Also, being under the influence by any illegal substance and/or possessing any paraphernalia used for such.
  13. Taking photos, video or audio recording of any store, product, employee, customer or officer. Photos of shopping party with shopping center decor, as a backdrop is allowed, all other activities must have shopping center management approval.
  14. Engaging in any unlawful activity or behavior, or the commission of any infraction, misdemeanor, or felony in the mall.
  15. Any person that exhibits behavior that can be construed as disrespectful towards the security.

Customers may bring their leashed, well-behaved dogs to the common areas of Desert Ridge Marketplace. Individual merchants may or may not allow dogs inside their stores. Please see individual merchants for their pet policy. Rules for owners and dogs in the common area are as follows.

1. All dogs must be leashed OR contained inside carriers at all times. Leashes must be no longer than 6' and retractable leashes are not permitted.
2. Dogs must be under their owner's control at all times. Owners, by law, are responsible for the behavior of their dogs and for the cleaning up after their dogs.

3. At no time is an owner permitted to leave his or her dog unattended.
4. If at any time the management or security of Desert Ridge Marketplace determines that the behavior of a dog is causing a disturbance to others, the owner will be asked to remove his or her dog from the premises.
5. In accordance to the Maricopa County Environmental Health Code, all animals shall be excluded from the splash pad.
6. All dogs must be in compliance with all applicable laws, including laws pertaining to dog licensing and vaccinations.